Land Acknowledgment

York University acknowledges its presence on the traditional territory of many Indigenous Nations. The area known as Tkaronto has been care taken by the Anishinabek Nation, the Haudenosaunee Confederacy, the Wendat, and the Métis. It is now home to many Indigenous Peoples.

We acknowledge the current treaty holders and the Mississaugas of the Credit First Nation. This territory is subject of the Dish With One Spoon Wampum Belt Covenant, an agreement to peaceably share and care for the Great Lakes region.

From: Jenny Ling <jenling@my.yorku.a> To: Hernan Humana <hhumana@yorku.ca> Subject: Volunteering with your team

Dear Professor Humana:

My name is Jenny Ling. I am a 3rd year student in the School of Kinesiology and Health Science. I am currently taking course KINE 3620 with you.

I would like to further pursue my interest in sociology of sport. I was wondering if there is an opportunity to volunteer in this area with you.

I have attached my updated Resume/CV and my transcript of records in PDF format for your perusal.

I am looking forward to hearing from you at your leisure. Thank you for considering my request.

Best Regards,

Jenny Ling, 3rd year student Kinesiology and Health Science York University
