YORK UNIVERSITY EMERGENCY BURSARY

The York University Emergency Bursary is open to all domestic and international undergraduate students to help cover short term immediate needs such as rent, food and lost wages due to workplace closures.

Graduate students can apply for assistance through the Faculty of Graduate Studies (FGS) Emergency Bursary.

You may apply for both bursaries if you meet the eligibility criteria of each one.

Please visit the Student Financial Services website for full details on these bursaries along with information on how to apply.

STUDENT COUNSELLING AND DEVELOPMENT

Student Counselling and Development (SCD) walk-in counselling is CLOSED and telephone counselling for single session, crisis and emergency support is now available by calling 416-736-5297. Details and additional support resources are available at the link above.

For additional and after-hours support, our partners at Good2Talk have advised us that they are remaining open at this time, and in addition to telephone support, have introduced a new texting feature.

CAREER CENTER

Career Centre services are available online, over the phone and via Skype ONLY.

The Career Lounge remains open online and Career Peer Educators will be online on Zoom during dedicated Lounge hours. One-to-one appointments are available over the phone or Skype.

The Career Centre website also has online resources and tools to help you with your job search and career questions.
